Peter J. Bietz Joins Gadsden Schneider & Woodward as Counsel

Wayne, PA – The trusts and estates law firm of Gadsden Schneider & Woodward LLP is pleased to announce attorney Peter J. Bietz has joined the firm. “Peter’s prior legal experience gives him a unique perspective on the resolution of issues arising in complicated trust administration and fiduciary matters,” stated Steve Woodward, one of three founding partners of Gadsden Schneider and Woodward LLP.

Peter has been practicing law for over ten years, including his tenure as Senior Trust Counsel to a Delaware trust company. His practice focuses primarily on estate planning, estate & trust administration, complex trust and tax issues, and entails the preparation, review, and implementation of estate plans, wills, and a wide variety of trusts. Peter also advises small business owners on business and tax matters, usually in conjunction with their personal estate planning. Peter has had several of his articles concerning estate planning published in the Pennsylvania Law Weekly.

Peter is currently a member of the Bar in Pennsylvania, New York, and Massachusetts (inactive) and is admitted to practice before the United States Tax Court. He graduated with a B.S. in Finance and a minor in business law from the Pennsylvania State University. After graduating from Penn State, prior to obtaining his law degree, Peter worked as an accountant for a small closely held business in New Jersey. Peter went on to earn his J.D. from the Boston University School of Law and his LL.M. in Taxation from Villanova University Law School.
